SPECIAL SELECTIONS FROM THE FARGO FILM FESTIVAL’S 2-MINUTE FILM CONTEST
Greg Carlson

Day MC
Brian Brady earned a BFA in Acting from NDSDU and can be seen on the featured circuit in the film, “Worst Kind of People. He has worked as an Actor/Director in over 150 productions onstage and with his wife writes, directs and produces short films, one of which finished in the top 250 of HBO’s Project Greenlight and a second premiered at the SD Film Festival. From there, he went on to pursue a degree in Photojournalism at MUM in Moorhead, MN. Throughout the years, Dave has worked on various production roles in the public and private sectors, which eventually led him to start his own company. Dusty is co-owner of DNB Cinematics in Bismarck. DNB creates a wide range of video products, including commercials, music videos, live coverage and documentaries.

Dusty Anderson
Dusty Anderson is the Production Coordinator at Bismarck State College, where he also teaches several Mass Communication courses. He is co-advisor of the Myx, BSC’s online radio station, and MystiCast, its student-driven video program. Prior to BSC, Dusty worked at KFYR-TV for over 10 years and has free-lanced gigs for NBA Entertainment, ESPN, TLC and PBS. When not spending time reading about the latest video trends, he can be found hanging out with his wife, Sarah, and two boys, Charlie & Mason.
