Bloody Fourth (5 min) *
Producer: Michael A. Glat
Post-production: David Swenson
The second episode in Makoko Studios’ History of Bismarck series focusing on the violent past of 4th Street in downtown Bismarck.

So Good to See You (10 min)
Director: Duke Merriman
Los Angeles, CA
A dinner party goes painfully sour when a voicemail, unknowingly recorded, exposes a couple’s true opinions of their old friends. A daily comic take on the dual realities of friendship.

Fraud (7 min) *
Director: Carson Nordgaard
Los Angeles, CA
A young man makes a living by impersonating famous actors, but his career is spiraling out of control.

The House is Innocent (13 min)
Director: Nicholas Coles
Producers: Max Velez, Alexis Manya Spraic
Los Angeles, CA
Meet Tom and Barbara, the proud new owners of a serial killer’s house – the most infamous residence in Sacramento, California. The middle-age couple soon realizes it’s going to take more than a fresh coat of paint to whitewash their home’s macabre history.

Unauthorized (3 min) *
(excerpt from film in production)
Writer/Director/Producer: Matt Fern
Bismarck, ND
The Story of the Fighting Sioux, explores complex questions of tradition, race, loyalty, and independence as an entire state wrestles with letting go of a beloved college icon.

The Girlfriend Experience (7 min)
Writer/Director: Mark Kunerth
Malibu, CA
When a broken-hearted guy tries to get over his recent break-up, he gets more than he bargained for.

The Dynamic Double Standard (5 min)
Writer/Director: Luke Patton
Los Angeles, CA
Zoe’s first night as a superhero is nearly ruined when she’s given a sexy and impractical uniform.

Rita Mahtoubian Is Not a Terrorist (8 min)
Writer/Directors: Roja Gash Gilli & Julia Lerman
Los Angeles, CA
When Iranian-born, lifelong loner Rita Mahtoubian sets out to change her life from ordinary to extraordinary, she accidentally captures the attention of a homeland security agent in this satirical comedy about romance, terrorism, and trying to be a better person.

The Term of Service (11 min)
